

Sinclair Broadcasting is actually airing a Bush commercial, because the documentary is one-sided - against Kerry.

To be fair, they should either remove the documentary or air an anti-Bush documentary.

Public airwaves free of charge should be in the interest of ALL the public, not just some.

It would be appreciated if you would do your job and take corrective action against Sinclair. Thank you.